

ID:39567367-0867-47e9-936f-6e9bcbe30912

Feedback: I support the changes proposed in section 12:

Retention applications should pay twice the rate as regular planning applications. There should be a penalty applied to those who build without getting planning permission first

Advertising structures should pay a high rate, because they have an impact far greater than their size.

Hotel developments should pay a higher rate than other commercial developments, and the money raised from this change should be used to reduce the contributions required from residential developments