

College Green Dame Street

Revealing the history

Greening the 'Green': A romanticised portrayal of College Green by Joseph Tudor in 1753

Built heritage as part of events: Round Tower and Eucharistic Congress in the 1930s

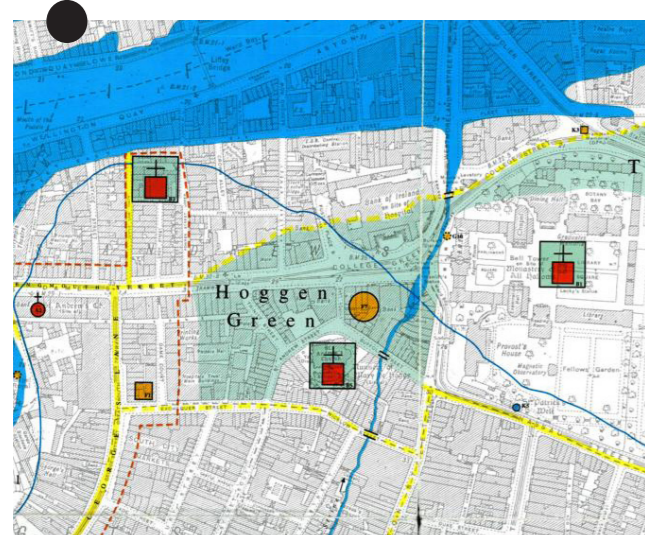

The dominance of vehicles reshaping the space: traffic in College Green in the 1960s

15th century

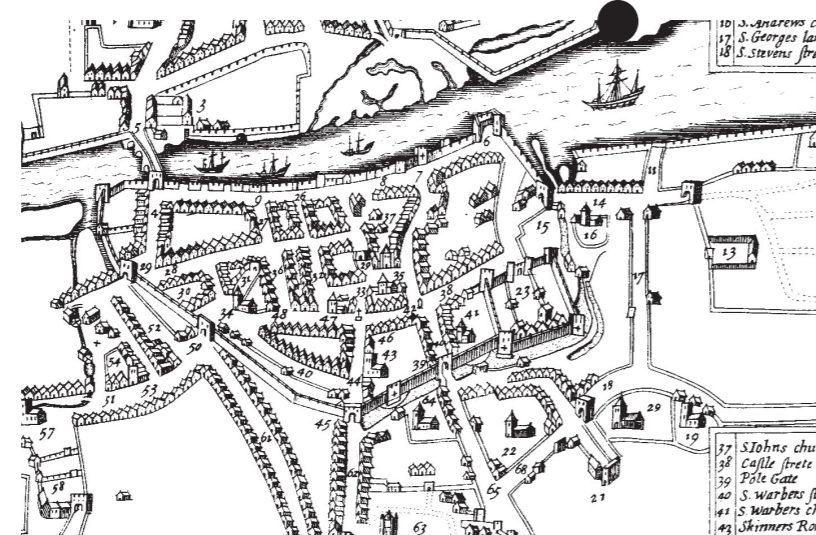

Hoggen Green - a significant ceremonial public space

Hoggen Green as depicted in Clarke Map (RIA)

16th century

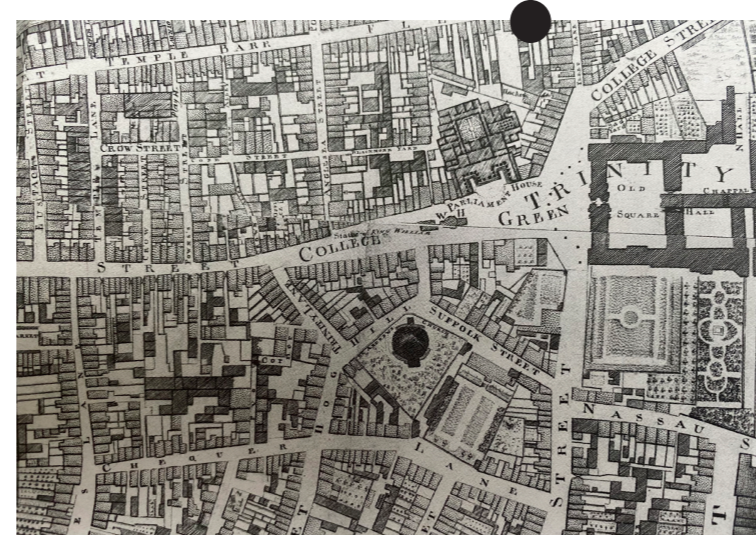

Late medieval city & Ireland's first university

Speed, 1610

17th century

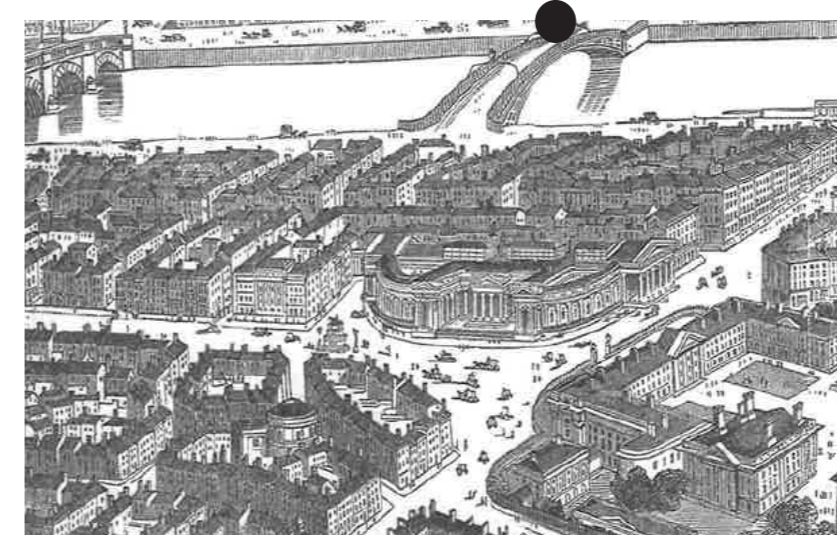

'Green Belt' as a pursuit to preserve Hoggen Green, Stephen's Green and Oxmantown Green

Rocque, 1756

18th century

Demolition of Chichester House and the construction of the new Parliament Building. Ceremonial route between the Castle, Parliament and University-Wide Street Commission

Smith, 1846

19th century

Transformation from a banking hub into an assortment of commercial buildings

DCC, Historical map scan, 1908

20th century

Modern interventions and a changing style of architecture